

Dan Gross: Strahan to raise Runyan $

By Dan Gross

Philadelphia Daily News

JON RUNYAN and Michael Strahan battled for years on the football field, but now the Eagles lineman and the Giants defensive end have joined in politics.

Runyan, a Republican candidate for Congress in New Jersey, has enlisted Strahan for an upcoming fundraiser, according to friends aware of Runyan's plans.

"Jon and Mike are friends from their playing days, and they've talked about the congressional race," says Runyan's campaign spokesman, Chris Russell. "At the moment, no plans for Mr. Strahan to join Jon on the campaign trail have been finalized, but it would sure be fun if he did."

Uncle Charlie at Ted's

Phillies skipper Charlie Manuel hit Ted's Montana Grill (Broad & Spruce) after Sunday's loss to the Florida Marlins.

Collins will donate all proceeds of sales Friday to Arthur

Stooges grace 'Chutzpah' cover

ThreeStooges.com, the official Web site of the legendary comedy team of 3rd & South native Larry Fine and fellow knuckleheads Moe, Curly, and Shemp Howard, has a prominent link to the cover story of the premiere issue of Chutzpah magazine. Chutzpah's chief content officer, Julie Davis Canter, says that the quarterly mag, which is locally themed, may also launch in other cities.

Canter says that the target audience is "people who want to preserve their Jewish heritage. There are too many organizations who divide Jews. We're celebrating what we all have in common." Canter and publisher Andrew Cantor, who also publishes Bucks and MAINLINE magazines, previously worked together for a series of magazines published by Lifestyle Ventures. ChutzpahMag.com has features that aren't in the magazine.
