

A.C. Confidential | Play

---

Big Time

A guitar-playing songstress in the vein of Sheryl Crow, Lisa Bouchelle brings her acoustic performance to the House of Blues Aug. 19. The Philly area native's first single "Insane" has already garnered a spot on the Top 40 Indie chart, and Starbucks chose additional songs from her debut album, Paint Your Dreams, for its Hear Music Media Bars. Although Bouchelle's first solo record premiered in April, the former swimsuit model has already shared the stage with musical powerhouses Jon Bon Jovi, Rob Thomas and Cyndi Lauper. For more information on Bouchelle's live shows, visit LisaBouchelle.com. —Marie Elizabeth de Mahy

Bouchelle's
guitar skills
shine in concert.